

The purpose of radio, whether terrestrial or satellite, is to provide information to the citizens and others. While the NAB is proud of its roots and service, the advent of satellite radio is a threat to them and their members. I feel that the service offered by the satellite radio services is what the citizens are entitled to. I do not feel that the arguments offered by the NAB are in the best public interest. Thank you